O R D E R:

In the reference 3rd read above, the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, A.P, Hyderabad has stated that Sri K. Narayana Prasad, while working as Commercial Tax Officer, Afzalgunj during the period 2001 - 02, has been found to have resorted to submission of inflated Revenue Collection Reports, when compared with Challan Posting Registers (CPRs). In view of the above, explanation of the individual was called for vide references 1st and 2nd read above; but the individual failed to submit his explanation and hence the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, A.P, Hyderabad recommended to initiate departmental action against Sri K. Narayana Prasad, former Commercial Tax Officer, Afzalgunj and presently working as Appellate Deputy Commissioner, C.T, Warangal.

2. In the reference 5th read above, Sri K. Narayana Prasad, Deputy Commissioner, CT, Warangal has submitted representation before the Government stating that the revenue collections made during the above period includes the revenue collections made by Assistant Commercial Tax Officers, Deputy Commercial Tax Officer through cheques, challans and also payments made by the Dealers directly into the Treasury etc. Hence, he had requested the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, A.P, Hyderabad, vide his representation, dt: 19.11.2007 to furnish relevant records for submitting his explanation; but the records were not produced for his perusal. He mentioned that in a similar case, Government as well as the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, A.P, Hyderabad have dropped further action against Sri Muralidhar Sharma, Commercial Tax Officer and Sri G. Lakshmi Prasad, Deputy Commissioner, CT, Charminar Division on 26.4.2005 and 3.6.2008 respectively and the Supreme Court of India in its judgment dated 11.8.2005 also held that protracted disciplinary proceedings against Government Servants causing unbearable agony is itself a punishment. He has contended that it is very difficult to explain reasons without availability of all records, as requested by him, since the revenue details were based on various sources and therefore requested to drop further action on par with others; as he has been facing mental agony due to the pendency of the case for more than 10 years and he will retire from service on superannuation on 31.7.2012.

3. Government have examined the representation of Sri K. Narayana Prasad, former Commercial Tax Officer, Afzalgunj and presently working as Appellate Deputy Commissioner, CT, Warangal and observe that the charges are not very serious and pertain to the year 2000 - 2002. Hence Government have decided to drop further action against him in the matter.

4. Accordingly, Government hereby drop further action against of Sri K. Narayana Prasad, former Commercial Tax Officer, Afzalgunj and presently working as Appellate Deputy Commissioner, CT, Warangal in the matter.

5. The Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, A.P, Hyderabad shall take necessary further action in the matter, accordingly.
